DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

In view of the amendments to the claims the earlier rejections under 35 USC 112 paragraph two are withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 29-30 and 48-54 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Adam for the reasons given in the Paper of 12/17/03.

Applicant argues that Adam et al alone or in view of those of ordinary skill in the art provides no motivation to teach the high infusion rate of 100 ml/hour to about 400 ml/hour. This is not persuasive. Adam et al (Burzynski, page 2506, third paragraph) discloses an infusion at the rate of 100 ml/h in an amount of 100 mg/ml.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
